

Doug Weisburger

Doug Weisburger is a Senior Planning Specialist, Sustainability Programs, in Montgomery County's Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) and a member of the County's Climate Planning Team. In this capacity, he works closely with residents, civic organizations, businesses and government officials developing and coordinating programs, initiatives and strategic plans designed to reduce the County's greenhouse gas emissions and overall ecological footprint and build community resilience to climate hazards. His portfolio includes a particular focus on racial equity and social justice, community engagement, economic development and institutional governance.

Prior to DEP, Doug worked in the County's Office of Management and Budget focusing on environmental policy and budgeting. Before working for the County, he worked with the Peace Corps (staff and volunteer); Ashoka: Innovators for the Public; the Council on Foreign Relations and Miami Country Day School as a high school history teacher. Doug holds a Master of Public Policy with an emphasis on environmental policy from the University of Maryland's School of Public Policy, and a Master of Arts in International Affairs from The George Washington University.
